10TH ANNIVERSARY FOR HERKY ON PARADE AND MILESTONES FOR UI ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT'S 2014 FOOTBALL SEASON

Eighty-three remarkably fashioned statues of Herky – the mascot of the University of Iowa – will provide hours of entertainment for friends of the UI and fans of the Iowa Hawkeyes during the summer of 2014. Herky on Parade will serve as one of the cornerstone activities of the UI Athletics Department's celebration of three important milestones during the 2014 college football season.

First, the UI will use the upcoming campaign for Kirk Ferentz's squad as a months-long celebration of the first 125 seasons of football in Iowa City. That's right. The Hawkeyes have been playing football for 125 seasons; the 2014 season will be No. 126. That's a lot of wins, losses, and ties – 606 victories, 534 losses, and 39 ties to be exact.

The 2014 season also marks the 75th anniversary of one of Iowa's most legendary football teams: The 1939 squad nicknamed, "The Ironmen." The '39 Hawkeyes finished the season 6-1-1 overall and 4-1-1 in Big Ten play – a mark 800 enough for second place in the league, Iowa's best finish in 17 years. Kinnick was named the Big Ten's most valuable player and won the Heisman, Kinnick, Prasse, and Enrich earned All-American recognition, and three Hawkeyes were named first team All-Big Ten.

The third celebration that will occur in 2014, is the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the National Varsity Club Iowa Athletics Hall of Fame.

To date, 164 men and women who have left their mark on the intercollegiate athletics program at the UI have been inducted into the Hall of Fame.

When visitors step onto the University of Iowa campus they will see and feel nearly $1.2 billion in construction projects underway, a pace unprecedented in the UI's 166-year history and on scale with a city the size of Minneapolis.
